

WELCOME TO THE AUGUST 2023 COMPASS CORRESPONDENCE

Hey friends! We hope all is well with you! We sure have a lot to catch you up on... let's get to it!

LIVE ALBUM DROP

BROKEN COMPASS BLUEGRASS

Our very first live album "Live Picks Vol. 1" is OUT NOW! We hand-picked some of our favorite songs from some of our favorite shows and we can't wait to share this compilation album with you. It is our wish that you'll be able to feel the live energy pulsing through these tracks and hopefully you'll get up and dance to them :)

It's a true honor for us anytime you listen to our music. However, some methods are better than others haha. Streaming is always appreciated, but as a reminder, it takes about 30,000 streams to equal the amount we would make from one physical CD purchase. That being said, we would sure appreciate if you snagged a physical CD (it's a double disc!) at one of our shows or via our website. Thanks in advance for your support!

In celebration of the album release, we created a mini series of short video clips on social media featuring each one of us playing a solo off the album. Check it out on Instagram, Facebook, or TikTok!

Our album release party is this Saturday, September 2nd, at the Fiddletown Community Center. Tickets can be found HERE

You sold out our first batch of band-made tie dyes in one weekend and we're so grateful. For those who didn't get in on the first batch, we made more just for you! They are not currently available on our website, so make sure to snag one (or five) at one of our upcoming performances!

We're making our debut appearance at The Side Door in Sacramento next Friday, September 8th! Although we always enjoy playing breweries, we're excited to play a venue like this where we can share our songs with folks who are there specifically for the music. Are you here for the MUSIC?! Grab tickets now at TheSideDoor.net.

We are absolutely thrilled to announce that we are on the lineup for the very first Sugar Pine Festival in Grass Valley this October. Some may know this festival as Hangtown before they changed the name. Come join the Halloween fun!

This announcement is something we've been waiting to tell you for months. We are beyond excited to report that we'll be flying to Raleigh, North Carolina at the end of September to perform at the International Bluegrass Music Association's \(IBMA\) World of Bluegrass festival! Mei Lin has been going to/performing at this event for the past couple years and has been dreaming of the year the full band could come. This is the year! If you don't know what IBMA is, it's basically the bluegrass GRAMMYS... business conference, street festival, awards show, exhibit hall, jamming in the hotels, etc.

See you out there!

Cheers,
Kyle, Django, Mei Lin, & Sam
