

WELCOME TO THE NOVEMBER 2023 COMPASS CORRESPONDENCE

Hey BCB family, friends, and fans! It's been a minute! Phew.. September and October were PACKED and we are so overwhelmed with gratitude for all of these incredible opportunities. Let's catch you up on all that went down!

BUT FIRST! We want to invite you to our debut at the beautiful, historical Nevada Theatre in downtown Nevada City on Saturday, November 11th. Kyle, Django, and Mei Lin have grown up in Nevada County and have been involved in events at this theatre before, but this is our very first time performing there as a band! It's a big space for us and we really hope you'll support us in packing this place. Big thanks to Paul Emery for inviting us to be a part of his "Nevada City Live!" Concert Series. Tickets can be found using the button below:

CAMP DEEP END 7

Back in mid September, we returned to the redwoods in Navarro for the seventh annual Camp Deep End. It was super special to have Aidan Steckley join us on drums for our main stage set. If you missed the set in person or would like to relive the festival magic, check out our full set (with multi-camera angles and sound board audio) by clicking the video below...

IBMA

At the end of September, we flew out to Raleigh, NC for the annual International Bluegrass Music Association's World of Bluegrass Festival. For those who may not know, this event is basically the GRAMMYS in the world of bluegrass, complete with a business conference, showcases, hotel jamming, streetfest, and awards show. It was a huge honor for us to get to perform 4 times throughout the weekend and have special guests Alex Genova (of Fireside Collective) and Kyle Tuttle (of Molly Tuttle & Golden Highway) sit in with us! This was our first plane flight as a band and the furthest we've ever traveled to perform, and therefore was a big milestone in our career. Check out our recap/vlog above! We made this video because we wanted to have something to look back on and we also wanted to find a way to include our family, friends, and fans back home who didn't get to be there in person. Lots of gratitude to all of the folks who helped make this possible: IBMA, PineCone, Skyline Records, Mountain Fever Records, Come Hear NC, Kyle Tuttle, Alex Genova, our manager Jeff, and our wonderful family and friends.

EVEN MORE HIGHLIGHTS

On Oct 12th we had the honor of opening for one of our very favorite bands on the planet, AJ Lee & Blue Summit! These folks are some of the best in the business and we always love getting to collaborate with them. You can view our entire opening set on YouTube by clicking HERE thanks to Michael West.

We made our debut headlining performance at the Chico Women's Club the next day!

In mid October, we spent the weekend hanging out at Sugar Pine Music Festival (formerly known as Hangtown) right in our hometown of Grass Valley. It started raining the morning of our set and we were worried no one would be there, but you all really showed up for us and had the best mud dance party ever. Grateful for you! Thanks also to our pals Boot Juice for having Kyle sit in and to the Grateful Bluegrass Boys and Caltucky for having Mei Lin sit in. Festival collabs are a blast!

UPCOMING EXCITEMENT

We're excited to announce we are headed back to the studio this winter to record our second studio album! Behind the scenes stuff coming soon. Just thought you should know so you can wait in suspense for a little bit ;)

The full 2024 WinterWonderGrass lineup at Palisades Tahoe is released! We're so stoked to be joining some of our musical heroes next April. AND we're thrilled to welcome Nikolai Margulis, one of Mei Lin's best friends, who will be adding some banjo to the mix. He's flying out all the way from New Jersey just for this festival!

Last but not least... we are opening for one of the absolute legends PETER ROWAN in Chico on December 29th! This is a very, big. deal. We've looked up to him all our lives and listened to countless projects he's been in including Bill Monroe & the Bluegrass Boys, to Old & in the Way, to his bluegrass band that he's touring with currently. We hope you'll snag tickets right away before they sell out: CLICK HERE

See ya out there!

Cheers,
Kyle, Django, Mei Lin, & Sam
